WEDNESDAY, - - OCT. 30, 1895.
Vote early next Tuesday and as often as you can.

BRADLEY is said to have heard of a fellow name Mullinolland.

CLEVELAND received a continuous ovation while at the Atlanta Exposition last week.

If you favor the force bill and a high protective tariff vote the Republican ticket.

Vote the straight Democratic ticket next Tuesday—a scratcher is not a good Democrat.

We have not heard a Republican say that Bradley made a good speech here last Thursday.

BRADLEY and Wilson seem to be enjoying their campaign on wheels and their champagne on ice.

Vote early next Tuesday morning and suggest to all your neighbors to go and do likewise, ye Democrats.

A man who has anything else to do, yet goes into the revenue service as a ganger, ought to have his neck broken.

A SUNDAY company has suspended at Indianapolis, but that is no more than the Republicans did in that city two weeks ago.

BEAR in mind that it costs three times as much to convict a criminal in Republican Judicial Districts as it does in Democratic Districts.

A DEMOCRAT for revenue only is not the best kind of Democrat—but some fellows who failed to get a Government office seem to think so.

If the editor of the Pantagraph will look after his vernacular wrapper he will be excused from taking any part in the affairs of the CLIMAX.

BRADLEY's special train intended to be a sort of triumphal column, will degenerate into a funeral procession, with him as the chief mourner.

Has anybody heard of anybody who was converted to Republicanism by the speeches of Bradley and Wilson at the court-house last Thursday?

Did it ever occur to you that the fellow who favors the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, necessarily favors the demonetization of silver?

All that Republican talk about there being something wrong with the Auditors office, is mere campaign dust to blind the people to Republican sins.

"Are the Republicans in Kentucky different from those in New York?" is the question to ask yourself when considering that Republican Legislative law concerning hotels, etc.

We know some fellows who received Government appointments but are now thinking of voting against the men who were instrumental in securing them the places—and they are much nearer right than the other fellows who are kicking because they didn't get in.

REMEMBER that there are six times as many pauper idiots in the Republican Judicial Districts as there are in Democratic Judicial Districts, but Tyler says he doesn't know whether the Republicans make pauper idiots or pauper idiots make Republicans.

STATES RIGHTS.

The liberty of governing themselves, is a liberty conceded the people by Democratic doctrine. Vote the Democratic ticket next Tuesday from stem to stern.

AS IN FRANCE.

France has Anarchists as the result of the late French imperialism. The Republican party wants to impenalize the United States.

RUSSIAN TENDENCY.

Russia has a "strong government" and more Nihilists than she can well suppress. The Republican party in the United States favors a strong government and would Russianize the United States.

GERMANY APE.

The German government is a "strong" one. Germany is overrun with Socialists and Anarchists. The Republican party in the United States wants a "strong" government that would encourage Socialism.

DON'T FORGET DEMOCRATIC DOCTRINE

The foundation of Democratic principle is a government of the people, for the people, by the people. The basis of Republican doctrine is "a government of the people by a few people, for a few people."

CZAR REED.

Ex-Speaker Reed is a model Republican. He ruled the House with an iron hand, and was called "Czar" Reed because he so much resembled the Russian Ruler. The Republican party would like to boss the United States as Reed bossed Congress.

AN EVIDENCE OF IT.

Nothing better should be asked as an evidence of the tyranny embraced in Republican doctrine than the so-called "force bill," or the bill providing for soldiers or United States Marshals at the polls. Democrats be ready to vote for your ticket next Tuesday.

NOT A PAUPER.

The Duke of Marlborough is not so poor as represented. He has deeded large English estates to Miss Vanderbilt. The lady's father has set aside $10,000,000, the interest of which goes annually to her. At her death the money goes to her children. Any arrangement that suits them ought to suit the balance of mankind, but it won't.

BIG BREAK IN LOUISVILLE.

Baumberger, Bloom & Co., the widely known Louisville merchants, made an assignment Saturday. Some years ago they burned out, and since that the assignment of other firms has involved them. The panic and long season of dullness combined to press them. Their liabilities go well up to a million and a half, with assets of like amount. This was a great firm, and many are the regrets that come from all parts of the country.

CORRESPONDENCE.

PANOLA.
The loading is in rapid progress. Births—To Mrs. John P. Winkler, a boy; to Mrs. Gideon Johnson, a boy; to Mrs. Jas. French, a boy. Dr. Johnson is behind with his reports, but will finish up the list as soon as possible.

Bro. Caldwell was called Sunday last to preach for the Speedwell Christian Church, and will preach regularly from now on the fourth Lord's day, morning and evening, in each month.

Lewis Sandlings, former Deputy Sheriff of Jackson county, reports the killing of Henry Gabbard by Cash Lakes on Kavanagh branch of Station Camp in Jackson county. Both had been moonshiners. Gabbard would induce others to moonshine and then report, hence the trouble. There were but few words passed. A brother of Gabbard was struck in the leg by a spent ball, making a slight flesh wound. Gabbard was shot in the chest three times, dying immediately.

Last Sunday was an interesting day at Crooked Creek Church. Prof. R. C. Adams has been instructing classes in vocal music at Beaver Pond, Alger, Wagonville, and Crooked Creek—they met Sunday and sang alternately and then all together. The words about the church never echoed such delightful music before. The songs were interspersed by short speeches, appropriate to the occasion. Much favorable comment was heard on those made by Dr. A. J. James of New York, and Clarence, eldest son of Dr. Johnson of Panola. Prof. Adams has done a good work in arousing such enthusiasm in a good cause.

BOOKSTOWN.

Mr. Silas Baxter went to Lexington Wednesday where he bought a wagon. The old adomition, "Make hay while the sun shines," was heeded by our farmers in its broad sense last week.

At the regular service at the church here last Sunday Rev. T. Q. Martin was unanimously called for the ensuing year. His many adherents are glad to know that he is not physically disabled as had been reported.

Why should Brookstown not have her share of stump speeches while they are being showered around us?

At Boggs schoolhouse a Sunday-school has been lately organized in which our people participate—knowing its saving power.

"A rainy Sunday in the country" has lost its gloss since the last one settled the dust.

R. D. Baldwin and Miss Elizabeth were at home last week from Winchester.

DOYLEVILLE.

Mrs. A. J. Walden, of this place, who has been sick, is improving.

Miss Lillie Reeves, from near here, accompanied her cousin, Mrs. Malissa Withers, to her home at Central City last week to stay until Christmas.

Annie B. Mr. Robert Luter's little girl, who has been sick, so long, is improving slowly.

Mr. Ivan Wooley, Mrs. John Wooley and Mrs. B. L. Alney were called to the bedside of their father, Mr. Henry Wooley, in Estill county, last week, who is very low.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baber and daughter Allie visited relatives near Speedwell the past week. While gone a call came from Clark county for them to attend the bedside of their daughter, Mrs. Asa Brock, who is very sick.

Mrs. J. R. Thompson, of Jackson county, visited her son near here a few days past. She is in very bad health.

Mrs. Nannie Thompson, of this place, is down with pneumonia.

BLUE LICK.

A good rain fell here Sunday evening and cheered everybody up, after a long season of dry weather which has done much toward damaging the crops in this vicinity.

Mr. John Fortune is talking of leaving our neighborhood. He and his excellent family will be greatly missed.

Mr. Harrison Foley will leave shortly for Knox county to spend the winter with relatives. His presence will be missed.

The first anniversary of the establishment of a Sabbath School at Pilot Knob Baptist church, will be celebrated next Sunday, November 3d, 1895, at 9 o'clock, a. m. A large crowd is expected and several speakers will be there to interest and address the school.

Mr. Field Golding is much improved after his long illness.

Mr. Gabner Foley is the boss corn shucker in this community. He and his son shucked 35 shocks in one day recently.

Miss Hallie Barclay has returned from a four weeks visit to Nicholasville. Her friends are all glad of her return.

Much of our farmers' time is now being spent in the corn field, and politics are not disturbing their equilibrium much.

KIENSVILLE.

Wm. Park, of Richmond, spent Saturday with relatives here.

S. S. Parkes, of your city, spent Sunday in Kiersville.

Miss Annie Weaver is out after a spell of fever.

J. B. Walker is very sick with fever. John W. Arnold and Geo. D. Simmons spent Sunday with relatives here.

Patrick Grady, Jr., bought of Dr. H. A. Phillips his farm of about 200 acres at a price in the neighborhood of $75 per acre. This is one of the best farms in this locality. It has splendid improvements and a beautiful dwelling house, and the soil is excellent.

Annie Reop, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Reop, departed this life Friday evening, Oct. 24th. She had been sick several months with consumption. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community.

The angel of Death came on last Friday to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Coy, and laid his icy hand on their little daughter Bessie, aged about three years. She was an exceedingly bright child and the idol of its parents and grandparents. It was at the age to become attached, and for all to become attached, but God in His infinite wisdom and mercy took the little one home to Himself and the angels in heaven. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

Ween not, heart broken parents, Bessie has gone to rest; To live with God and the angels, Forever happy and blessed.

LEXINGTON RACES.

Below we give a list of the winning owners and the amount each one won during the last meeting of the K. T. H. A., together with their places of residence. Col. R. G. Stoner's colt, Oakland Baron, captured the big Futurity Stake, and of course that gentleman's name heads the list. It will be seen that the $80,000 was pretty well distributed to all parts of the country, while a goodly portion of it remained at home. The drivers who won first money, with the number of races won, are also given—Ed Geers, nine; John Hussey and George West two each, while one each was taken by Will Evans, Ben Kenney, Charles Cunnins, William Milan, Doug Thomas, J. A Big Suit.

An echo of the Hume Clay sensation is a big suit filed Tuesday, by J. M. Thomas in his own behalf in that of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, against T. C. Robinson, D. B. Hampton, C. B. Fox, T. W. Hampton and John W. Hughes, securities of the late Will Farney, Sheriff, for $10,493.50, with five years' interest, amounting to over $13,000. James Holckin, deceased, and Richard Bush, deceased, were also parties and their estates will be made parties to the suit.

When Hume's defalcation became known the Winchester banks secured attachments on considerable property belonging to M. H. Clay or M. H. Clay & Co. This was sold by Sheriff Farney, amounting to the first named. It was a most curious question at the time as to whether Capt. J. M. Thomas was a partner in the firm of M. H. Clay or not, and the property was sold on the assumption that he was not, but that the property was that of Hume Clay. It was afterwards decided that Capt. Thomas was a partner, and as such was liable for a share of the firm's debts and entitled to his share of the firm's assets. Hence the suit. It was filed just in time, as one day would have barred it by limitation.—Winchester Democrat.

NASHVILLE had no Republican ticket but they united with the P. & A. and defeated the straight Democratic ticket. 2

—Died in Lexington. Mrs. Virginia Lackey died at the residence of Dr. Ben Coleman in Lexington on Friday morning, Oct. 25th, most unexpectedly, of hemorrhage. She was driving in the afternoon, enjoyed her supper and felt unusually well. Retired at her usual hour, but some slight noise attracted the doctor and wife to her room about 1 o'clock. She was standing on the side of the bed, but instantly the blood gushed from her mouth and in an hour she was dead. Had been in poor health for several years. Remains were interred in Richmond cemetery on Saturday. She was the daughter of the late Wm. Malcolm Miller and widow of Samuel E. Lackey. Leaves son, Wm. M. Lackey, of New York.

River Improvement.

Bishop Dudley has appointed Wednesday, November 27, as the date upon which shall meet the Primary Council of the Eastern Kentucky Episcopal Diocese for the purpose of organizing and electing its first Bishop. The place of meeting is Christ Church, Lexington.

Broom Factory Starts Up Again.

At their broom factory last week, after a suspension of several months, Broom corn has been scarce and high, but now the new crop is coming in and there will be plenty of new brooms for clean sweeping.

The Entire Town Invited.

The ladies of the Baptist Church have secured Rev. Carter Helm Jones for a lecture Friday night at the court-house. The subject will be "Our Homes." The price, only 30 cents and 25 cents. These ladies have not asked anything of the public for a long time. Turn out, hear an excellent lecture and help the church.

The Largest Crowd Yet.

Two hundred voters assembled at White-Bush last Friday night, at which time place Prof. Roberts and the editor of this paper were billed to speak. Both regret their inability to be present. Judge Chennault and Mr. Green Clay were, however, present, and amply remunerated the crowd for their trouble in coming out.

Edwards Avenue.

This is a new street just opened and runs West from Third, one square north of the R. N. I. & R. A. residence fronting on it is a number of residences. The street is named for the proprietor of the Flat Rock Bakery.

Two more small houses have been built on the R. N. I. & R. West of the depot.

Sale of Fox's Fast Horses.

In today's CLIMAX appears a notice from the Lexington "Stock Farm" of the magnificent yearlings bred and sold by R. P. Fox & Son. The attention of Madison county breeders is especially called to the publication, knowing that they will take place in such desirable stock, reared in Madison county, and especially when it is considered that the sire is also a Madison county production. "Dr. Hooker" is doubtless one of the best sires to his age, of which the records give any account. He is coming fine for early speed and fine individuality. Good judges who saw "Dr. Hooker" perform at Lexington think him a 2-minute horse.

The Boone's Gap Shooting.

The examining trial of Reese White, colored, for shooting R. H. Stephenson was had before Squire H. H. Wood at Boone's Gap, last Tuesday. County Attorney Corley for prosecution, C. C. Williams for defense. It had been reported as a bad case but we understand that the Court discharged the defendant on the Commonwealth's testimony. They had had some trouble over a spring and finally had a quarrel at Stephenson's house. They quarreled out to the gate and Stephenson started back into the house presumably for a weapon and White shot him twice as he was going in, once in the arm and once in the breast.—Mr. Vernon Eagle.

Funeral of F. M. Green.

The funeral of F. M. Green, editor of the Register, took place from the residence at 10:30 o'clock, in the forenoon of Wednesday, as indicated in these columns that morning. Elder Smith, of the Christian church, offered prayer and read a chapter. The choir consisted of Mrs. W. G. White, Mrs. G. W. Pickles and Messrs. E. E. Mitchell and W. L. Arnold, sang several selections. The pall bearers were: On the right—Governor McCreary, Joe Collins, J. A. Sullivan, W. G. White; on the left—Frank Tipton, E. E. McCann, A. R. Burnam, V. L. Crutcher.

The lot in the cemetery is a pretty one located on the line between third and old and new parts of Richmond's rapidly increasing city of the dead; and adjoins the Confederate Veterans lot on the West side. The services at the grave consisted of a prayer and song.

Nearly all the States from Texas, round North to Virginia, were represented at the sale of T. S. Moberley, deceased.

The hotels were full over, even the parlor and other space filled with coats. An unusually large number of home people was present. The crowd has been variously estimated at 1,000 to 2,500, and included a number of ladies. The principal attraction was Forest Grove herd of short horns.

The farm adjoining Richmond rented to Hyatt Brook, Garrard county, $1,400.

Who sold for $228. Abbotshurn, the World's Fair champion, sold to Wallace, of Cooper county, Mo., for $475, having more age than most breeders' like. A younger and less noted bull went to Westport, of Iowa, for $500. The 72 head of short horns totaled $22,000, near as much as was expected. Wallace took two others at $350 each. The third highest was $400, and went to Illinois, and one at $350 to Iowa. Virginia got two and Texas several. J. R. Barbour, of Springfield, Ky., secured two—$80 and $75. H. D. James, of Fayette, took one. J. D. Nave, of Garrard, got one. One of Johnson, formerly of the firm of Lyter & Johnson, carried away two—$80 and $75. H. C. James, of Richmond, got one at $80. J. B. White took—$55 and $60. C. D. Chennault landed five—$80, $50, $55, $65, $107. John D. Harris was an equally large purchaser in numbers, capturing five $75, $20, $25, $35, $105.

R. E. Edmonson, of Chicago, formerly of Kentucky, was auctioneer. Abe Benick, of Clark, and J. H. Pickrell, of Springfield, Ill., editor of the Herd Book, were among the prominent short horn dealers present.

Dinner on the ground for all.

Thus Madison county loses one of her most prominent features.

R. N. I. & R. Extension.

Good reason now exists for believing that the R. N. I. & R. railroad will be extended from Irvine to Beattyville. The Louisville Trust Company on a half million dollars of the road's bonds, and recently a Louisville party, considering chiefly of Trust Company members, inspected the grade between the points above named. They were accompanied by Capt. Rock, who thinks the road will be completed next summer.

To Wed Soon.

Rev. Dr. J. V. Logan, the distinguished President of Central University, and Mrs. Mary Jones Herndon, are to be married next week. The parties are too well known and popular for comment here.

The following week Mr. J. V. Logan, Jr., son of the above gentleman, and Miss Jessie Taylor, sister of Dr. T. J. Taylor, will be married. This couple will go to Orlando, Fla., and take up their abode on a $20,000 orange grove. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Flora preceded them this week and will reside at the same grove.

R. P. Fox's Great Yearlings.

Among the attractions at the Lexington track during the meeting of the Kentucky Trotting-Horse Breeders' Association, just closed, were four yearlings from the stock farm of Messrs. R. P. Fox & Son, Richmond, Ky. They were Judge Fox, a bay colt by Dr. Hooker, 2:25; Docile, also a bay colt by Dr. Hooker, Nellie B., a filly by Conrad, and the chestnut pacer Cigarette by Electioneer.

The young horseman, Walter Traynor has had charge of the youngsters, and exhibited them here. Young Traynor is but sixteen years old, and is known by his friends as the silent and modest boy driver of Kentucky. Unfortunately, however, for the young man three of his colts had gotten out of condition, and the bay colt Docile was the only one which he could show much speed. This one seemed perfectly fit for his work and the young gentleman gave him a half in 1:5, quarter in 30 seconds. Mr. N. W. Hubinger, who was present and witnessed the performance, was so well pleased with the colt that he immediately purchased him for $500. Judge Fox, another good one by the same horse, was only permitted to step an eighth, but he did it nicely in 1:50 seconds, when he too was sold conditionally to an Illinois gentleman for $800. Those two were bred and raised by Messrs. Fox, and are of Dr. Hooker's first crop of colts, he being now over five years old. The sixteen months' old colt, Dr. Conner, that paced a half at the Lexington track a few days prior to this in 1:50, is also by Dr. Hooker, and he too was sold to Mr. Hubinger for $1,000. Andy by Hooker, dam by Covington, is owned by E. H. Young, Finlay, O., who is highly pleased with him and says he is of the size, style and finish to suit him. He has trotted an eighth in 20 seconds, ran good milester, and has never been driven to a break. The fifth colt, which is owned in Madison county, and which was entered as a substitute in the Kentucky Futurity for 1896-7, had to be turned out last spring, and has not been worked this season. After enjoying the blue grass during the summer he is now in the most excellent condition. Those who are aspiring to the rich futurity should keep a lookout for this fellow. These five colts constitute the entire crop of the get of Dr. Hooker, as a three-year-old, as during the months of April and May of that year he was sick and was permitted to serve but few mares. It might be remarked here that each of these five colts is out of an mares producing mare, which should add greatly to the credit of Dr. Hooker.

Dr. Hooker has a small crop of weanlings that are very promising, one of which was exhibited on the streets of Richmond last Saturday, and after critical examination, was pronounced by competent judges as the best colt they ever saw. No doubt these youngsters will prove good ones, as Dr. Hooker has never been known to sire a colt that did not show speed.

The Messrs. Fox are strictly breeders, and their colts and fillies are all for sale. The incoming crop is most promising, and quite a number of foals are expected, as the horse made a good season last year, serving sixty-five mares, thirty of which were first-class bred.

It is likely that Dr. Hooker will make the season of 1896 at Richmond, Ky., and terms and locations will be made in due time. Parties having first class mares to be bred should not overlook this good young stallion when they are making their selections.—Lexington Stock Farm.

If your children are subject to croup watch for the first symptom of the disease—hoarseness. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse it will prevent the attack. Even after the croupy cough has appeared the attack can always be prevented by giving this remedy. It is also valuable for colds and whooping cough. For sale by Hagan's Pharmacy.

Chennaults and Burnams in Office.

Now that John C. Chennault and E. T. Burnam are contending candidates for the Legislature, a glimpse of the two families to office will be of interest. Both have served considerable time in the Legislature.

1822, Wm. Chennault.
1840, Wm. Chennault, Jr.
1844, Thompson Burnam.
1848, Waller Chennault.
1853, Curtis F. Burnam.
1858, Curtis F. Burnam.
1867, A. T. Chennault.
1883, J. R. Burnam.
1887, A. T. Chennault.

Thus it is seen that each family has had three generations in the Legislature. The Chennaults have had one more of the family elected, but the Burnams outnumber them in years served.

In 1842-46, Wm. Chennault was in the Senate.

Hon. C. F. Burnam was Assistant Secretary of the United States Treasury.

The Chennaults furnished a County Judge for several terms, and the Burnams are now supplying the place.

Dr. R. C. Chennault was Medical Superintendent of the Eastern Lunatic Asylum and Hon. A. R. Burnam was Collector of Internal Revenue.

E. T. Burnam has been U. S. Gauger and A. T. Chennault is now U. S. Storekeeper.

J. C. Chennault was Police Judge and E. T. Burnam U. S. Commissioner.

In war services the Chennaults greatly overbalance that of the Burnams. Wm. Chennault, father of the senior William, first above mentioned, was a member of the 6th Virginia in the Revolution. Dr. Wm. Chennault, grandson of the Revolutionary soldier, was a surgeon in the Mexican War, Stone's Company and died while in service. His brother, D. Waller, was a private in the same company. Col. D. Waller Chennault and Captain Joe Chennault were killed in battle at the head of their respective commands on the Confederate side, in the late war. Several other Chennaults were in this same regiment.

Thompson Burnam was Quartermaster in the 8th Kentucky U. S. Vols, late war.

As farmers, merchants, teachers, physicians, lawyers, preachers and bankers the two families are about equal, the Chennaults having the advantage in agriculture.

Weak and Nervous.

Describes the condition of thousands of people at this season. They have no appetite, cannot sleep, and complain of the prostrating effect of warmer weather. This condition may be remedied by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which creates an appetite and tones up all the organs. It gives good health by making the blood pure.

Hood's pills are the best after dinner pills, assist digestion, cure headache.

The Darlington, Wis. Journalist editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not all rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by Hagan's Pharmacy.

Two Lexington Boys Accept Positions on the Richmond Climax.

(Lexington Argonaut.)

Messrs. J. B. Sharkey and Frank A. Bradley, two of Lexington's handsome "comps" have just accepted positions on the Richmond CLIMAX. They were formerly connected with the Argonaut, and are hustlers from away back. They were both handsome and influential with the ladies while here and left many a fair maid in tears on departing. The Richmond boys will have to hustle to keep ahead of these two young men, especially since Mr. Sharkey has secured the service of a mistress. They are both good workmen and the CLIMAX has made no mistake. Below is their business card:

Divorce Suit.

Judge Edwards yesterday granted an order of injunction against John B. Shockney on the petition of Mrs. Fannie M. Shockney. The defendant is the well-known horse trainer. Mrs. Shockney alleges that the defendant is a confirmed drunkard and that he has been guilty of extreme cruelty. The defendant, she says, "has often and repeatedly within the last six months cruelly attempted to beat and injure the plaintiff, has attempted to kill her, has driven her from his home at late hours of the night, has burned a considerable part of her wearing apparel, her jewelry, etc., among other things a valuable onyx and pearl bracelet."

Mrs. Shockney says that she has nothing except some household furniture. She is, she says, without home or shelter, and the defendant, she says, refuses to deliver to her the furniture above mentioned and her clothing. Within the last few days, she says, he has threatened her, he is, she says, constantly drinking to excess, and when in his cups is so desperate that she fears for her life. In conclusion she asks for a divorce. The restraining order entered by Judge Edwards covers the alleged necessities of the case.—Courier Journal.

WORTHY YOUR CONFIDENCE.

The success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in conquering scrofula in whatever way it may manifest itself is vouched for by thousands who were severely afflicted by this prevalent disease. Come to it may, a faithful course of treatment with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Scrofula may appear as a humor, or it may attack the glands of the neck, or break out in dreadful running sores on the body or limbs. Attacking the mucous membrane, it may develop in a catarrh or lodge in the lungs leading to consumption. Come to it may, a faithful course of treatment with Hood's Sarsaparilla will overcome it, for working upon the foundation of all diseases, impure blood, the system is clarified and vitalized, and vigor, strength and health restored to the body.
